RESTATED BY-LAWS OF THE RESERVE AT CYPRESS CREEK COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.
(Effective Date November 14, 2007)

ARTICLE I. NAME, PRINCIPAL OFFICE AND DEFINITIONS

A. Name

The name of the Association shall be The Reserve at Cypress Creek Community Association, Inc. (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Association")

B. Principal Office

The principal office of the Association shall be located in Harris County, Texas.

C. Definitions

The words used in these By-Laws shall have the same meaning as set forth in that Declaration of Covenants Conditions and Restrictions for the Reserve at Cypress Creek recorded in the Harris County, Texas public records under Clerk's File No. W025247 (said Declaration, as amended, renewed, or extended from time to time, is hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Declaration").

ARTICLE II. ASSOCIATION: MEMBERSHIP, MEETINGS, QUORUM, VOTING, PROXIES

A. Membership

"Member" shall mean and refer to those persons entitled to membership as provided in Article IV, Paragraphs A and B of the "Declaration", and specifically incorporated herein by reference.

B. Place of Meetings

Meetings of the Association shall be held at the principal office of the Association or at such other suitable place, convenient to the members, as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

C. Annual Meetings

Regular annual meetings shall be in November, or as set by the Board.

D. Special Meetings

The President may call special meetings. In addition, it shall be the duty of the President to call a special meeting of the Association if so directed by resolution of a majority of the Board of Directors or upon a petition signed by Members in good standing representing at least fifteen percent (15%) of the total votes of the Association. The notice of any special meeting shall state the date, time, and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof.

E. Notice of Meetings

Written or printed notice stating the place, day, and hour of any meeting of the Association shall be delivered, either personally or by mail, fax or other electronic media, to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of such meeting, by or at the direction of the President or the Secretary or the officers or persons calling the meeting. Such notice must contain a description of the topics or issues to be discussed.

In the case of a special meeting or when required by statute or these By-Laws, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be stated in the notice. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice.

If mailed, the notice of a meeting shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail first class postage pre-paid addressed to the Member at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Association. One notice, addressed to multiple Members at the same address, shall suffice if more than one (1) Member resides at any address.

F. Waiver of Notice

Waiver of notice of a meeting of the Association shall be deemed the equivalent of proper notice. Any Member may, in writing, waive notice of any meeting of the Association, either before or after such meeting. Attendance at a meeting by a Member shall be deemed waiver by such Member of notice of the time, date and place thereof, unless such Member specifically objects to lack of proper notice in writing at the time the meeting is called to order. Attendance at a special meeting shall also be deemed waiver of notice of all business transacted thereat unless objection to the calling or convening of the meeting, of which proper notice was not given, is raised in writing before the business is put to a vote.

G. Adjournment of Meetings

If any meeting of the Association cannot be held because a quorum is not present, a majority of the Members who are present at such meeting, in person [or by proxy], may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than five (5) nor more than thirty (30) days from the time the original meeting was called. At the reconvened meeting, if a quorum is present, any business that might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted. If a time and place for reconvening the meeting is not fixed by those in attendance at the original meeting, or if for any reason a new date is fixed for reconvening the meeting after adjournment, notice of the time and place for reconvening the meeting shall be given to Members in the manner prescribed for regular meetings.

H. Voting

The voting rights of the Members shall be as set forth in the Declaration, and such voting rights provisions are specifically incorporated herein. Each Member may vote in person or by proxy appointed by instrument in writing and subscribed by the Member or by the duly authorized attorney of such Member. Facsimile proxies shall be valid. At all meetings of Members, all questions, except those the manner of which is otherwise expressly governed by statute, the charter of the Association or by the By-Laws, shall be decided by the vote of a majority of the Members of the Association present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, a quorum being present. All voting shall be via voice, except that, upon the determination of the presiding officer of any meeting or upon demand of a majority of Members present or their proxies, voting on any issues remaining on the agenda at any meeting shall be by ballot. Each ballot shall be signed by the Member voting or by his proxy. At the option of the Board of Directors, any vote may be taken by mail ballot, or any combination of mail, proxy, or in person. Mail ballots may be counted toward a proxy of Members present (as if in attendance at a meeting)

I. Majority

As used in these By-Laws, the term "majority" shall mean those votes, owners, or other group as the context may indicate totaling more than fifty percent (50%) of the total eligible number.

J. Quorum

Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws or in the Declaration, the presence in person of Members representing fifteen percent (15%) of the total eligible votes in the Association shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Association.

K. Conduct of Meetings

The President shall preside over all meetings of the Association, and the Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meeting and record in a minute book all resolutions adopted at the meeting and all transactions occurring at the meeting.

L. Action Without a Meeting

Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the Association or any action that may be taken at a meeting of the Association, may be taken without a meeting if written consent setting forth the action so taken is signed by Members holding the number of votes necessary to pass a proposition concerning the subject matter thereof, and any such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Members.

ARTICLE III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS: NUMBER, POWERS, MEETINGS

A. Composition and Selection

Section 1. Governing Body: Composition The affairs of the Association shall be governed by a Board of Directors, each of whom shall have one (1) vote. All Directors must be Members in good standing.

Section 2. Number of Directors The number of Directors in the Association shall be five (5). Election of Directors may be by any mail ballot, by vote of a majority of the Members in person or by proxy at a properly called meeting at which a quorum is present, or by any combination of the same.

Section 3. Term of Office of Directors The term of office of each Director shall be for two (2) years. At no time shall more than three (3) of the total Directors be added to the same elected term.

Section 4 Nomination of Directors Nominations for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee consisting of a Chairperson who shall be a member of the Board of Directors and two (2) or more Members in good standing of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors not less than thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Directors as it shall, in its discretion, determine but in no event less than the number of positions to be filled. Nominations may also be made at the annual meeting by any member in good standing.

Section 5 Removal of Directors and Vacancies Any director may be removed from the Board, with or without cause, by a majority vote of Members in good standing of the Association, at any regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present. Any director who ceases to be a Member shall automatically terminate as a director. In the event of death, resignation or removal of a director, his or her successor shall be selected by the remaining members of the Board and shall serve until the next general election, when a director shall be elected for the remainder of the unexpired term. Alternatively, the Board may call a special election, at which the successor shall be chosen by the membership and shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Any Director elected by the Members who has three (3) unexcused absences from Board meetings within any twelve (12) month period or who is delinquent in the payment of any assessment or other charge due the Association or not in compliance with the recorded restrictions for more than thirty (30) days may be removed by a majority of the directors present at a regular or special meeting at which a quorum of the Board is present, and a successor may be appointed by the Board to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term.

B. Meetings

Section 1. Organizational Meetings The first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the Membership shall be held within sixty (60) days thereafter at such time and place as shall be fixed by the Board.

Section 2. Regular meetings Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the directors, but at least one (1) such meeting shall be held during each fiscal year. Notice of the time and place of the meeting shall be communicated to the directors not less than four (4) days prior to the meeting; provided, however, notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who has signed a waiver of notice or a written consent to holding of the meeting.

Alternatively, the Board of Directors may schedule a regular meeting date, place and time and, after forwarding notice of the same, shall not have the obligation to give future notices until a change is made.

Section 3. Special Meetings Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by a written notice issued at the request of the President of the Association or by written resolution of a majority of the Board of Directors, or upon a petition signed by Members representing at least fifteen percent (15%) of the total votes of the Association. The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting. The notice shall be given to each director by one of the following methods: (a) by personal delivery; (b) written notice by first class mail, postage prepaid; (c) by telephone, email, facsimile or other such communication methods, either directly to the director or to a person at the director's office or home who would reasonably be expected to communicate such notice promptly to the director. All such notices shall be given at the director's telephone number or sent to the director's address as shown on the records of the Association. Notices sent by first-class mail shall be deposited into a United States mailbox at least four (4) days before the time set for the meeting. Notices given by personal delivery, telephone, e-mail, or facsimile shall be delivered, telephoned, e-mailed, or faxed at least seventy-two (72) hours before the time set for the meeting.

Section 4. Waiver of Notice The transaction of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if (a) a quorum is present, and (b) either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any director who attends the meeting without protesting in writing before or at its commencement about the lack of adequate notice.

Section 5. Quorum of Board of Directors At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the votes of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the Board of Directors. If any meeting of the Board cannot be held because a quorum is not present, a majority of the directors who are present at such a meeting may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than five (5) nor more than thirty (30) days from the date the original meeting was called. At the reconvened meeting, if a quorum is present, any business that might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

Section 6. Compensation No director shall receive any compensation from the Association for acting as such unless approved by Members representing a majority of the total votes of the Association at a regular or special meeting of the Association at which a quorum is present; provided, however, that a director may be reimbursed for expenses incurred on behalf of the Association upon approval of a majority of the other directors

Section 7. Conduct of Meetings The President shall preside over all meetings of the Board of Directors, and the Secretary shall keep a minute book of meetings of the Board of Directors, recording therein all resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors and all transactions and proceedings occurring at such meetings. In the event the President of the Board of Directors is unable to be present for a scheduled meeting, the Vice President shall preside over the meeting.

Section 8. Open Meetings Subject to the provisions of Section B(9) or (10) of this Article, all meetings of the Board shall be open to all Members, but Members other than directors may not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless permission to speak is requested on his or her behalf by a director. In such case, the President may limit the time any Member may speak. Notwithstanding the above, the President may adjourn any meeting of the Board of Directors and reconvene in executive session, excluding Members, to discuss or vote on matters of a sensitive nature, such as pending or threatened litigation, personal matters, etc.

Section 9. Action Without a Formal Meeting Any action to be taken at a meeting of the directors or any action that may be taken at a meeting of the directors may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all the directors, and such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote.

Section 10. Executive Session The Board of Directors may close a portion of its meetings for the purpose of discussing items which require confidentiality; matters involving the personal accounts of Members, matters currently in litigation and other matters that the Board, its discretion, considers to be of a sensitive nature.

C. Powers and Duties

Section 1. Powers The Board of Directors shall be responsible for the affairs of the Association and shall have all of the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the Association's affairs.

In addition to the duties imposed by these By-Laws, Texas law or by any resolution of the Association that may hereafter be adopted, the Board of Directors shall have the power to establish policies relating to, and shall be responsible for performing or causing to be performed, the following, in way of explanation, but not limitation:

- (a) preparing and adopting of annual budgets;
- (b) making assessments, establishing the means and methods of collecting such assessments, and establishing the payment schedule for Special Assessments;
- (c) collecting the assessments, depositing the proceeds thereof in a bank depository that it shall approve, and using the proceeds to operate the Association; provided, any reserve fund may be deposited, in the directors' best business judgment, in depositories other than banks;
- (d) providing for the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of all Common Areas;
- (e) making or contracting for the making of repairs, additions, and improvements to or alterations of the Common Area in accordance with the other provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws after damage or destruction by fire or other casualty;
- (f) designating, hiring and dismissing the personnel necessary for the operation of the Association and the maintenance, operation, repair, and replacement of its Property and the Common Areas and , where appropriate, providing for the compensation of such personnel and for the purchase of equipment, supplies, and materials to be used by such personnel in the performance of their duties;
- (g) making and amending rules and regulations and promulgating, implementing and collecting fines for violations of the rules and regulations;
- (h) opening of bank accounts on behalf of the Association and designating the signatories required; signatories must be Directors and two signatories are required for withdrawal of funds, except when funds are transferred between Association accounts.
- (i) enforcing by legal means the provisions of the Declaration, including the provisions concerning architectural control, these By-Laws, and the rules and regulations adopted by the Association and bringing any proceedings that may be instituted on behalf of or against the Members concerning the Association;

(j) obtaining and carrying insurance against casualties and liabilities with policy limits, coverage and deductibles as deemed reasonable by the Board of Directors and paying the premium cost thereof. Such insurance shall include Directors and Officers insurance and a Fidelity Bond.

(k) paying the cost of all services rendered to the Association or its Members and not chargeable directly to specific owners;

(l) keeping books with detailed accounts of the receipts and expenditures affecting the Association and its administration, specifying the maintenance and repair expenses and any other expenses incurred;

(m) maintaining a membership register reflecting, in alphabetical order, the names, property addresses and mailing addresses of all Members;

(n) making available upon request to any prospective purchaser, any owner, any first Mortgagee, and the holders, insurers, and guarantors of a first Mortgage on any Property, for any proper purpose during normal business hours by advance appointment, copies of the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws, rules governing such Property and all other books, records, and financial statements of the Association for a reasonable charge; and making copies thereof available for a reasonable charge; and

(o) permitting utility suppliers to use portions of the Common Areas reasonably necessary to the ongoing development or operation of the Property.

Section 2. Management. The Board of Directors may employ for the Association a professional management agent or agents at a compensation established by the Board of Directors to perform such duties and services as the Board of Directors shall authorize. The Board of Directors may delegate to the managing agent or manager, subject to the Board's supervision, all of the powers granted to the Board of Directors by these By-Laws, other than the powers set forth in subparagraphs (b), (f), (g), and (i) of Section C(1) of this Article.

Section 3. Accounts and Reports. The following management standards of performance will be followed unless the Board by resolution specifically determines otherwise:

- (a) Accrual or cash accounting, as defined by generally accepted accounting Principles.
- (b) Accounting and controls should conform to generally accepted accounting principles.
- (c) Cash accounts of the Association shall not be commingled with any other accounts.
- (d) No remuneration without full disclosure and prior agreement of the Board of Directors, or as contained in a written management contract, shall be accepted by the managing agent from vendors, independent contractors, or others providing goods or services to the Association, whether in the form of commissions, finder's fees, service fees, prizes, gifts, or otherwise; anything of value received shall benefit the Association.

- (e) Any financial or other interest that any director, or the managing agent, may have in any firm providing goods or services to the Association shall be disclosed to the Board of Directors prior to being elected to the Board of Directors or being appointed as an agent, or prior to a firm being selected to provide goods or services.
- (f) Financial reports shall be prepared for the Association monthly containing:
- (i) an income statement reflecting all income and expense activity for the preceding period on an accrual or cash basis;
 - (ii) a statement reflecting all cash receipts and disbursements for the preceding period;
 - (iii) a variance report reflecting the status of all accounts in an "actual" versus "approved" budget format;
 - (iv) a balance sheet as of the last day of the preceding period; and
 - (v) a delinquency report listing all Owners who are delinquent in paying any assessments at the time of the report and describing the status of any action to collect such assessments that remain delinquent.

(g) An annual report consisting of at least the following shall be made available at each meeting of Members to all Members within one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of the fiscal year: (1) a balance sheet; and (2) an operating (income) statement. The annual report referred to above shall be reviewed by either an audit committee consisting of three (3) Members in good standing who are not directors, or by an independent CPA. The method of review is at the discretion of the Board.

Section 4. Borrowing and Capital Expenditures The Board of Directors shall have the power to borrow money for the purpose of maintenance, repair or restoration of the Common Areas without the approval of the Members of the Association.

Annual capital expenditures for purposes other than the aforementioned expenses, shall be limited to ten percent (10%) of the annual budgeted revenue and may be made without the approval of the Members of the Association. If a capital expenditure is going to be made in excess of the above referenced ten percent (10%), it must be approved by a majority of the membership at an annual or a special Association meeting, when a quorum is present.

Section 5. Rights of the Association With respect to the Common Areas and in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the Declaration, the Association shall have the right to contract with any person or entity for the performance of various duties and functions. Such agreements shall require the consent of a majority of the total number of directors of the Association. For any contract in excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), the Board must obtain at least two (2) bids, and accept the bid which is, in the Board's opinion, the best bid.

Section 6. Enforcement The Board shall have the power to impose reasonable fines, which shall constitute a lien upon the property of the violating Member, and to suspend a Member's right to vote or any person's right to use the Common Areas for violation of any duty imposed under the Declaration, these By-Laws, or any rules and regulations duly adopted by the Association provided, however, nothing herein shall authorize the Association or the Board of Directors to limit ingress and egress to or from a Lot. In addition, the Association shall be entitled to suspend any services provided by the Association to a Lot in the event that the Owner(s) of such Lot is more than thirty (30) days delinquent in paying any assessment due to the Association. In the event that an occupant, guest or invitee of a Lot Owner violates the Declaration, By-Laws, or a rule or regulation and a fine is imposed, the fine shall first be assessed against the occupant and/or owner, provided, however, if the fine is not paid by the occupant within the time period set by the Board, the Owner shall pay the fine upon notice from the Association. The failure of the Board to enforce any provision of the Declaration, By-Laws, or any rule or regulation shall not be deemed a waiver of the right of the Board to do so thereafter.

As provided in the Declaration, each Owner is obligated to pay the Association certain charges and Assessments, including such charges and Assessments as may be included, from time to time, by amendment to the Declaration. All costs, expenses, and fees charged to, or paid by, the Association in collecting, or attempting to collect, such charges and Assessments, as well as interest as specified in the Declaration, shall be assessed against the Owner and a Lot, and shall become part of the Assessments due on the lot. Likewise, all costs, expenses, and fees incurred by the Association in rectifying, or attempting to rectify, a violation of the Declaration shall be assessed against the owner and the Lot, and shall become part of the Assessments due on the Lot. Such costs, expenses, and fees shall include, but not be limited to:

- (a) actual expenses, including attorney fees and court costs;
- (b) a Late Processing Fee may be set annually by the Board of Directors, which shall be assessed for any account that has an unpaid balance on or after thirty (30) days after due date, as an inducement to pay on time and to offset administrative costs and expenses incurred in the collection process.
- (c) a Dishonored-Check Processing Fee, set by the Board of Directors, which shall be assessed for any payment check dishonored by the bank, to offset the additional processing costs incurred;
- (d) a Partial Payment Processing fee, set by the Board of Directors, which shall be assessed if any payment for less than the full amount due at the time of payment is made, to offset the additional processing costs incurred;
- (e) a Transfer Fee which shall be assessed for the transfer of ownership of any Lot, including by foreclosure, to offset the administrative costs and expenses associated with (1) quoting, verbally or in writing, the status of the Assessments and other charges due on the Lot, (2) tracking, researching, and determining or attempting to determine ownership, (3) updating the books and records of the Association to reflect the transfer, and (4) preparing and mailing introductory information regarding the subdivision, the Association and/or the covenants conditions, restrictions, rules, and regulations applicable to the new owner; and

- (f) a Refinance Fee which shall be assessed for the refinance of any Lot, to offset the administrative costs and expenses associated with quoting the status of the Assessments and other charges due on the Lot and updating the books and records of the Association.

Any such Assessment or charge that is not paid when due shall be delinquent.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the Association, acting through the Board of Directors, may elect to enforce any provision of the Declaration, these By-Laws, or the rules and regulations of the Association by self-help (specifically including, but not limited to, the towing of vehicles that are in violation of parking rules and regulations and perform exterior maintenance) or by suit at law or in equity to enjoin any violation or to recover monetary damages or both without the necessity of compliance with the procedure set forth above. In any such action, to the maximum extent permissible, the Owner or occupant responsible for the violation of which abatement is sought shall pay all costs, fines, costs to repair, including reasonable attorney's fees actually incurred.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

A. Officers

The officers of the Association shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, to be elected from among the members of the Board. Any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of President and Secretary.

B. Election, Term of Office and Vacancies

The officers of the Association shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the Members. A vacancy in any office arising because of death, resignation, removal, or otherwise may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

C. Removal

Any officer may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors whenever, in its judgment, the best interests of the Association will be served thereby.

D. Powers and Duties

The officers of the Association shall each have such powers and duties as generally pertain to their respective offices, as well as such powers and duties as may from time to time specifically be conferred or imposed by the Board of Directors. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. The Treasurer shall have primary responsibility for the preparation of the budget as provided for in the Declaration and may delegate all or part of the preparation and notification duties to a finance committee, management agent, or both.

E. Resignation

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, the President, or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

F. Agreements, Contracts, Deeds, Leases, Checks, etc.

All agreements, contracts, deeds, leases, checks, and other instruments of the Association shall be executed by at least two (2) officers or such other person or persons as may be designated by resolution of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V. COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors is hereby authorized to establish committees to perform such tasks and to serve for such periods as may be designated by a resolution adopted by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Each committee established by the Board shall operate in accordance with the terms of the resolution of the Board of Directors designating the committee and in accordance with such rules as are adopted by the Board of Directors. All committees of the Association shall be vested with advisory powers only and is not authorized to act on behalf of the Association.

ARTICLE VI. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Association shall be January 1st through December 31st of each year.

B. Parliamentary Rules

Except as may be modified by Board resolution, Robert's Rules of Order (current edition) shall govern the conduct of Association proceedings when not in conflict with Texas law, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, or these By-Laws.

C. Conflicts

If there are conflicts between the provisions of Texas law, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, and/or these By-Laws, then the provisions of Texas law, the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, and the By-Laws (in that order) shall prevail.

D. Books and Records

Section 1. Inspection by Members and Mortgagees The Declaration, By-Laws, and Articles of Incorporation, any amendments to the foregoing, the rules and regulations of the Association, the membership register, books of account, and the minutes of meetings of the Members, the Board, and committees shall be made available for inspection and copying by any holder, insurer or guarantor of a first Mortgage on a Lot, Member of the Association, or by the duly appointed representative of any of the foregoing at any reasonable time and for a proper purpose during normal business hours at the office of the Association or at such other place within the Property as the Board shall prescribe, by appointment.

Section 2. Rules for Inspection The Board shall establish reasonable rules with respect to:

- (a) notice to be given to the custodian of records;
- (B) hours and days of the week when such an inspection may be made by appointment for a proper purpose; and
- (c) payment of the cost of reproducing copies of documents requested.

Section 3. Inspection by Directors Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records and documents of the Association and the physical Property owned or controlled by the Association. The right of inspection by a director includes the right to make a copy of relevant documents at the expense of the Association.

E. Notices

Unless otherwise provided in these By-Laws, all notices, demands, bills, statements, or other communications under these By-Laws shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered personally or if sent by United States Mail, first-class postage pre-paid.

(a) if to a Member at the address that the Member has designated in writing and filed with the Secretary or, if no such address has been designated, at the address of the Lot of such Member; or

(b) if to the Association, the Board of Directors, or the managing agent, at the principal office of the Association or the managing agent, if any, or at such other address as shall be designated by notice in writing to the Members pursuant to this Section.

F. Amendment

These By-Laws may be amended only by the affirmative vote or written consent, or any combination thereof, of a majority of the Board of Directors, and by two-thirds (2/3) of the votes of the Association present, in person or by proxy, at any regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present. A quorum for purposes of amending these By-Laws shall be defined as being thirty percent (30%) of the Membership. Notwithstanding the above, the percentage of votes or other approval necessary to amend a specific clause shall not be less than the prescribed percentage of affirmative votes required for action to be taken under that clause.

G. Indemnity

Pursuant to the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, Article 1396-2.2A, the Association shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless, any and all current and past Board members, Officers, and Committee members to the maximum extent permitted by law, including costs and attorneys fees.

H. Business Judgment Rule

Any act or thing done by any Director, Officer, or Committee Member taken in furtherance of the purposes of the Association, and accomplished in conformity with the procedures set forth in the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation, the laws of the State of Texas, and/or these By-Laws, shall be reviewed under the standard of the Business Judgment Rule as established by the common law of Texas, and such act or thing done shall not be a breach of duty on the part of the Director, Officer, or Committee Member if they have been done within the exercise of their discretion and judgment.

The Business Judgment Rule means that a court shall not substitute its judgment for that of the Director, Officer or Committee Member. A court shall not re-examine the quality of the decisions made by a Director, Officer, or Committee Member by determining the reasonableness of the decision as long as the decision is made in good faith in what the Director, Officer, or Committee Member believes to be the best interest of the Association.

I. Conflict

If an owner is involved in litigation with the Association as to a conflict of interpretation of the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for The Reserve at Cypress Creek, the Articles of Incorporation for The Reserve at Cypress Creek Community Association, Inc., rules and regulations promulgated by the Association, or these By-Laws, and/or the amount of delinquent assessments, that Owner may not participate in any Association meeting or activity.

WITNESS WHEREOF, we, being all the directors of the Reserve at Cypress Creek Community Association, Inc., have hereunto set our hands this 14th day of November, 2007.
